

TIM ATKIN

TRIPLE RECOGNITION TO OUR NOBLE LAND AND THE WORK OF OUR TEAM BY INFLUENTIAL WINE CRITIC

Tim Atkin MW, wine critic internationally recognized for his tasting palate, has published the 2022 version of his 'Chile Report' after visiting Chile and tasting 1,198 wines. In these, Atkins shares his impressions on how our wine industry is evolving. In this year report he highlighted the quality that Chilean are achieving and the diversity that the country offers as a world-class appellation.

We had the opportunity to receive him in our winery in the Maule Valley where, together with Marcelo García, tasted a representative selection of what TerraNoble offers to consumers in Chile and the world. We are proud to share three important recognitions received:

1. Marcelo García is recognized as one of the Chilean winemakers who has influenced the development of the Chilean wine industry is experiencing.
2. Among Chilean wineries, TerraNoble has been promoted to Atkin's 'Second Growth' ranking, the second most important. This classification is similar to the one for Bordeaux wines.
3. Once again, TerraNoble's work with the Carmenera variety is recognized. Our Carmenera CA2 Costa was selected as one of his "Wines of the Year" with 96 points.

